MYSORE

The humble Memorial of (Sree) Salahuva Vakkaligar Sangha Representatives of Tumkur & Chitaldrug Districts, MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HIGHNESS:

That there are many families belonging to Salahuva Vakkaligar Community in the whole of Your Gracious Highness' State.

That in the Census taken once in 10 - years, our Community has been termed as Swalpa Vakkaligar or Sarpa Vakkaligar, which nick-name is a mistake.

That our Community is one among the - several communities in the Major Community of Vakkaligars which consists of 38 (Thirty Eight) Sub-communities in it. And as such, the Scholarships that would be awarded by the Benign Government of Your Gracious Highness will be all taken away by Gangadikar Vakkaligars. That the Benign Government of Your Highness - has taken pains to incorporate, in a Book styled as - "THE MYSORE TRIBES AND CASTES"--, our Community and the particular religion observed by it, in Volume IV.

4. That as our Community has not been till now recognized in public matters by the Benign Government, having been included in the Major Community of Vakkaligars, it has been till date left out of account

Wherefore

WHEREFORE, we most humbly and respectfully pray Your Gracious Highness to kindly be pleased to issue orders to the Census Commissioner in Mysore for inclusion of our Community under a separate category "(SREE) SALAHUVA - VAKKALIGAR COMMUNITY", which would help us in getting our Community, in particular, duly recognized in public matters and matters of other - interests.

For which act of kindness, we shall ever be highly grateful to Your Benign Highness.

We beg to subscribe,
May it Please Your Highness,

To

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to your official memorandum No.G.M.2629 dated the 22nd October 1930 forwarding for my opinion a petition from members of the Salahuva Vokkaligar community, requesting enumeration of Salahuva Vokkaligars separately at the next Census, I have the honour to state as follows:-

The community has been previously described as Salpa or Sarapa which has always been considered as part of the Vokkaliga community, Salpa or Sarapa being one of many sub-castes like Gangadikara or Morasu. There is no objection to people of this community returning themselves as Salahuva Vokkaligars at the time of "Enumeration." The name would be noted and all such persons treated as Vokkaligars. It would, however, not be possible to treat them as separate from the rest of the Vokkaliga community and show the population separately in the tables. If it is done for this community, it would have to be done for every other sub-caste among Vokkaligars. Thus a large number of sub-castes would have to be treated as separate and independent castes. This would be incorrect. I am therefore of opinion that this request cannot be granted

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant

M. Venkatesal
